Message from President Anne Porter

Congratulations to our new and returning officers for 2011-2012, and thanks to all these ladies for taking on these leadership roles. Please call on each and every member to share in making the next season a spectacular year. (New officers are listed on the back of this newsletter.)

We had an excellent program in March. Dr. Marty Matthews and Ms. Frachele Scott, from the NC Department of Cultural Resources and the NC Division of State Historic Sites, presented a brief overview of our state's historic sites and treasures. For more information on these sites and their many fine programs, please visit: <http://www.nchistoricsites.org/>. A special thanks to Marty and Frachele for donating their honorarium back to the Carol Caldwell Scholarship Endowment.

Allow me to take this opportunity to thank all the members of this venerated club for making me feel so appreciated and supported in my role as president over the last two years. It has been a remarkable journey, and it has meant so much to me getting to know the extraordinary members of this fine organization. I step down and leave this office in the talented hands of Vivian Hughes. Vivian was president in 1990-91, and I know that she will be wonderful in 2011-12. As I turn the gavel over to Vivian this month, please join me in offering her our assistance whenever she calls!

Reflections from the 55th Commission on the Status of Women

In February, four students (including NC State Park Scholar Katie Starr) presented independent research at the United Nations in New York during an international women's rights conference, the Commission on the Status of Women. Research was made possible by the local nonprofit WomenNC (<http://womennc.org>).

Katie and her fellow students will present their findings in a panel at NC State on Thursday, April 28 at Erdahl Cloyd Auditorium in DH Hill Library from 7:00-8:00 p.m. Light refreshments will be provided.

Membership Drive

Memberships – both renewals and new memberships – keep the NCSU Woman's Club strong and vibrant. A BIG thanks to the 54 members who have already sent their forms and dues for 2011-2012! Please complete the form and mail it with your luncheon reservation or bring it to the April meeting. Make checks payable to NCSU Woman's Club. Should you combine your membership and luncheon registration with one check, please make a clear note on your check. (Extra forms will be available at the April meeting.) Please invite NEW members to join!
