

2013-14 Yearbook Information

Our 2013-14 Yearbook Editors, Jane Doby and Chris Cammarene-Wessel, have already begun planning the next issue of your NC State University Woman's Club Yearbook! With help and advice from President Jackie Wynne and suggestions from the members, we aim to make this upcoming edition even better!

If you did not have a photo in the current yearbook, and would like to provide one for the new issue, please send your photo (don't worry about size; we can reduce and/or crop as needed) to Chris Wessel either in the mail (10017 Bushveld Lane, Raleigh, NC 27613) or attached to an email (chris_wessel@ncsu.edu).

Be sure to look over your contact information in the yearbook. If we need to correct anything, call or email Chris (919-870-1643).

NC State's Women in Science and Engineering (WISE) Celebrating 10th Year!

The WISE Village is a living and learning community created for first- and second-year women engineers, mathematicians, statisticians and scientists. The program combines a group living experience with resident, upper-class mentors who will assist in the transition to university life.

Promoting academic success; fostering the formation of lasting relationships with fellow students, professors and mentors; and providing out-of-class experiences are fundamental components of the program. The WISE Village is a supportive environment in which future engineers, mathematicians, statisticians and scientists engage in focused inquiry within their disciplines and begin to develop the skills and talents necessary to become successful professionals.

Message from President Jackie Wynne

We are so excited that Talbots is partnering with the Woman's Club to present the Fashion Show this year. Talbots is a boutique that has a little bit of everything for everyone, every shape and size, from shoes, scarves to belts and jewelry, Women's to Misses to Petites. You're bound to find something that suits you.

Please mark your May calendar. Our thanks to Wanda Leffler, who has arranged for the Woman's Club to tour the new James B Hunt Library on Thursday, May 16th. More information about the tour/luncheon and how to make reservations will be available at the April luncheon and on our website; additionally, the Communications Committee will be notifying members not in attendance at the April meeting. Any questions? You can ALWAYS contact me at 919- 880-1569 or jackiewynne@msn.com.

Thank you to our wonderful March hostesses for the beautiful Easter-themed centerpieces and the delicious and colorful baskets of candy. Thank you to Lou Mitchell for coordinating the program featuring Dr. Dianne Dunning of the College of Veterinary Medicine. I flunked the "Show & Tell" portion of the presentation. I couldn't identify anything, not even the hairball.

Thank you to all our members for your positive (and yes, occasionally negative) feedback regarding the Club's programs. We will continue to use the information to guide our program planning decisions. This past Monday I attended the first planning session of the 2013-2014 NC State Woman's Club Programs Committee. We hope that we can schedule programs so you won't want to miss a single one. While we plan to continue the pattern of meeting for lunch on the third Thursday of the month most of the time, this fall, once again, we are planning to meet on the second Thursday of the month in October (to avoid state fair traffic) and in December (holiday scheduling issues), so you might want to note that on your calendars now. It looks like the 2013 program dates will be: September 20, October 11, November 15, December 13; and for 2014: January 16, February 20, March 20, and April 17. Of course these dates will be published in the 2013-2014 Yearbook available in September. And REMEMBER, nothing is EVER set in stone, but we will do our best to give plenty of notice.

As you know, I think our Committee Chairs and the committee members do an outstanding job and I appreciate all their dedication to the Woman's Club. I am looking forward to working with everyone for another year. Thank you to all who have already turned in your membership renewal forms and volunteered to be on one or more committees. As far as I know, no one has signed up for the Membership Committee yet. I am also giving serious thought to creating a new committee --- Public Relations and Publicity. Please contact me if you feel you might have something to contribute to that effort or would like to be involved in some way. Let me know if you want to add your name to any committee. :)

Thanks to Monthly Hostesses

As Chair Person of Hostess Committee for the past five years, I want to thank all of you ladies who have served as monthly hostesses during that time. You have willingly and graciously served to make our monthly meetings special in every way. The club members have especially appreciated and enjoyed your beautiful/clever table decorations and your choices of menus. Thank you for a job well done.

Sponsor a Table at the Spring Fashion Show... Support the Carol Caldwell Scholarship Endowment!

Our endowment, created in 1983 to provide financial need-based scholarships for mature students beginning or returning to NC State to complete an undergraduate degree, can provide meaningful awards to students far into the future, and we can ensure the endowment keeps growing! This year, we invite members to sponsor tables at the Spring Fashion Show with a $25 or $50 donation (or more!) to the Carol Caldwell Scholarship Endowment in the NC State University Foundation. You will receive a receipt for your contributions, made payable to the NC State Foundation. We are hoping our current recipient, Lorena Patterson, can be part of the fashion show event – keep your fingers crossed!

The first award in 1984 -85 was only $300. Because of our members' continued support of this endowment, the corpus has grown to $122,217 as of 12/31/12. With the growth of the corpus, comes the growth in the annual income that allows for larger scholarships. This year's award was $4,240. As you think of the women who have been touched by this scholarship and the generations of women to come, please consider a gift to the Carol Caldwell Scholarship Endowment today, either as a table sponsor or as a donor at any level. Please mail your checks, payable to NC State University Foundation, to: Carol Caldwell Scholarship Endowment, c/o Ms. Anne Porter, Campus Box 7522, Raleigh, NC 27695-7522 (or send with your reservation).

The Carol Caldwell Scholarship Endowment is the NC State University Woman's Club's remarkable legacy. Thank you for its creation and continued support!

The NC State University Woman's Club Thanks Talbots!

Cameron Village Shopping Center ~ 438 Woodburn Road ~ Raleigh, NC 27605

Talbots is a leading retailer and direct marketer of women's classic apparel, shoes and accessories, known for providing gracious service and a quality selection of timeless wardrobe essentials in a broad range of sizes.

Heritage

In 1947, our founders Nancy and Rudolph Talbot opened their first shop in Hingham, Mass., a quaint New England town not far from Boston. Their business quickly became known as "the store with the red door" and a go-to destination for classic style, great color, impeccable tailoring and personalized service. In 1948, Nancy and Rudy launched their direct mail business by distributing 3,000 black-and-white fliers to names obtained from The New Yorker magazine. Today, there are more than 500 Talbots stores throughout the U.S. (45 states) and Canada with catalogs and an e-commerce site reaching a vast audience of customers around the world.

Corporate Responsibility

Talbots is committed to operating under the highest ethical standards and our corporate responsibility efforts reflect this commitment. We approach our corporate responsibility strategy by examining the scope of our business operations and considering the most significant impacts of our work. As a result, our corporate responsibility priorities are organized into three areas of focus: Supply Chain Social Responsibility, Community Investment, Product Responsibility. Our goal is to be a trusted corporate citizen, while recognizing that this work is an ongoing journey requiring care, attention, flexibility and thoughtful dialogue at all levels of our organization.
