Minutes of the NC State Women's Club (University Club)

November 21, 2019

The meeting was called to order by President Sharon Ayers. Sharon welcomed the members and our guests. Sharon recognized the November Hostess Committee for the very clever table decorations highlighting our need and appreciation for clean water for our environment. The committee and decorated the speaker/podium with some beautiful Thanksgiving decorations. The Hostess Committee for November were: Suester Sowell, Chair, Geneva Humphries, Fay Prost-Hoit, Toni Downey, and Aileen Pressley. Thank you, ladies, for volunteering to serve as hostess for this month.

There were no guests of the Club this month.

President Ayers welcomed Mr. Ed Buchan, Environmental Coordinator for the City of Raleigh water system.

The President thanked the members for continuing to bring contributions to the meeting for the Pack Pantry and she also thanked Helen Hauser for her coordination and delivery to State.

There were several announcements. Lou Mitchell's husband Burley was in the hospital and is now in rehab. Sue Banks husband, Thomas is currently hospitalized. The Club sends their best wishes to get well soon.

On a sad note, former president of the NCSUWC Inge Sagan has passed away on October 4, 2019. She was the President of the Club in 1991-1992. Inge was 85 years old. Inge was born in Vienna, Austria and moved to Montana with her husband, Dr. Hans Sagan in 1955. As a young woman, Inge attended the University of Idaho and received her BS in Physics while her husband was on the faculty. They moved to Raleigh in 1963. Inge was a 30 year docent at the North Carolina Museum of Art. She is survived by her daughter Ingrid, her two grandchildren Jesse and Jack and many longtime friends in Raleigh and Austria. A memorial service will be held in Raleigh at a date and time to be determined later.

Anne Porter-Sasser thanked everyone for their contribution to the Carol Caldwell Scholarship Fund. Currently 38 of the 70 members have donated. Anne has challenged the club along with Lou Mitchell for 100% participation. Anne and Lou each pledged $1000 if the entire Club each made a donation of $100. This offer is good until the end of the year. Please consider giving. Lou who also pledged $1000 towards the scholarship fund made her contribution today even though the challenge is open under the end of December. Donations made be online by going to the NC State Women's Club website: <https://clubs.ncsu.edu/womansclub/>. The address and instructions for sending a check:

Make checks payable to NC State University Foundation Inc. with a notation "For the Carol Caldwell Scholarship Endowment Fund #145038" indicated on check.

If the gift is in honor of someone else, include the honoree's name and the name and address of those to be notified concerning your gift.

Reba Worsley informed the Club that NC State Women's Basketball is now ranked #14 in the US and #2 in the SEC. The team will be going to Hawaii for a tournament.

Our invocation was made by Suester Sowell.

Our speaker today was Mr. Ed Buchan, Environmental Coordinator, Raleigh Water. Ed was very informative and made a fascinating presentation on the history of public water service, sources of water for the city of Raleigh and surrounding communities and how our water is processed and reused.
