Minutes of the NC State Women's Club (University Club) celebrating the 100 years of the NCSU Women's Club

December 12, 2019

The meeting was called to order by President Sharon Ayers. Sharon welcomed the members and our guest. Sharon recognized the December Hostess Committee for the beautiful Christmas poinsettias and Christmas carolers. The committee decorated both the speaker/podium and cake table with some beautiful carolers. The decorations were perfect for Christmas but also our program of the Oakwood Waites. Thank you Aileen Pressley for arranging for a cake for us to conclude our celebration of our 100th anniversary. The Hostess Committee for December were: Ann Frazier, Chair, Joy Frauson, Mae Mitchell, Susan Hunter, Peggy Chilton, Mae Marshall and Betsy Meldau. Thank you, ladies, for volunteering to serve as hostess for this month.

Lynn McPhaul was the guest of Sue Danielson this month.

Aileen Pressley presented to President Ayers a proclamation from Mayor Nancy McFarland of Raleigh which proclaimed the wonderful activities and community service performed by the Club over its 100 year history. September 19, 2019 was proclaimed NCSU Women's Day in Raleigh.

The President thanked the members for continuing to bring contributions to the meeting for the Pack Pantry.

There were several announcements. Lou Mitchell's husband Burley who was in rehab has been released and is at home. Sue Banks husband, Thomas is also at home and preparing for radiation therapy. The Club sends their best wishes to get well soon.

Our invocation was made by Betsy Meldau.

Our program was a small group from the Oakwood Waites. It was a beautiful presentation of wonderful Christmas songs. I believe it drew smiles on everyone's faces. It was a real treat.

We were also fortunate to hear from Mae Mae Nolan on the Club from 40+ years ago. We have a slightly different format than back then but it is still the wonderful Club that it was back then. Mae Mae thank you for sharing your memories with us.

Minutes submitted by,

Georgina Werner, Secretary
