Message from the President

Did you miss me? I missed you at the October meeting. I was actually cruising to the Panama Canal during the October meeting. A special thanks to Women's Basketball Coach Kellie Harper. We all wish Kellie and her ladies the very best for 2011! Go Wolfpack!

I want to thank Chris Wessel for presiding for the October meeting. In case you misplace your newsletter, we have posted them on our Web site:

www.ncsu.edu/womansclub.

November's Program is one that you will not want to miss. In this day and age of the World Wide Web and "online" everything, fraud and identity theft is an ever-growing problem. We are all at risk! Caroline Farmer, Deputy Director of the Victims and Citizens Section of the NC Attorney General's Office, will present helpful and important tips on how we all can protect ourselves and families.

Thanks to each of you for your continued leadership, support, and dedication to our club. Please call or email if you have any questions or concerns. (513-3463 or anne_porter@ncsu.edu)

Anne Porter, 2009-10 President

Carol Caldwell Scholarship Endowment

Remember.... raffle tickets will continue to be sold at each meeting -- one ticket for $3 or six tickets for $15. There will be a special raffle prize drawing each month, then all tickets will be placed back into the pot for a final $100 drawing during the April meeting.

We would like to give special thanks and recognition to Dr. Charles W. Welby for his very generous gift to the Carol Caldwell Scholarship Endowment in memory of his late wife, Eleanor M. Welby, and in recognition of the NCSU Woman's Club. As Dr. Welby so kindly wrote in a note to the Club, "She (Eleanor) was involved in the beginnings of the scholarship and later supportive of it." "The (NCSU) Woman's Club was an important part of her life here in Raleigh."

If you wish to make a tax-deductible gift, please make checks payable to the Carol Caldwell Scholarship Endowment. Please use this form and send your gift checks to:

Carol Caldwell Scholarship, c/o Ms. Anne Porter, Campus Box 7522, Raleigh, NC 27695-7522

NC State Woman's Club Historical Tidbit

"I was the first woman to receive a graduate degree in the Department of Textiles. That was 1932. At that time the department was in old Tompkins Hall--built in replica of a textile factory. My thesis subject required tensile strength tests on various fibres; I shall never forget the problems involved due to fluctuating temperatures and humidity in the 'constant temperature room.' Dr. Nelson, head of the department, Dr. Hart and Dr. Hilton were very dubious about accepting a female, but were finally won over by Dr. Grimshaw and all went smoothly. At that time there was no area provided for women students to rest or lounge nor were there any dormitory accommodations. I was a member of a committee sponsored by the NC State College Woman's Club to transform one room in the basement of Peele Hall for a women's lounge--entrance in the rear!"

-- Lillian Tyler Jones

Reminder to Committee Chairs

Please contact your committee members, especially those new to your committee or the Club, to let them know what their responsibilities are.
