Message from President

I hope everyone survived Halloween. Thanks to everyone who made the October meeting such a success.

We thoroughly enjoyed having Wes Moore, coach of the lady Wolfpack, last month as our guest speaker. I just checked and their first ACC game is scheduled for December 3 at Reynolds Coliseum and will be against Minnesota at 7:00 pm. Hope some of you will be available to attend. For more schedules and information, please go to: gopack.com. We will be cheering on NC State teams and wishing them great success. Go Pack!

At our October meeting, Mary Lou Eycke and the Constitution Committee presented the "proposed" constitution. Much time and thought has been given to this project. Please read your copy of the "proposed" constitution and be prepared to vote at our November meeting.

Where has the time gone? It is already Thanksgiving and Christmas is not far behind.

I look forward to seeing you at the November 20 meeting. -- Aileen Pressley

November Meeting – Thursday, November 20, 2014

Title: North Carolina Women Through the 150-Year History of Oakwood Cemetery

Our speaker will be Ms. Robin Simonton; Executive Director of Historic Oakwood Cemetery, since November of 2011. Cemeteries hold the key to our past and an understanding of our present. The monuments and stones tell stories of times long gone. The history of North Carolina rests at Oakwood Cemetery in Raleigh, NC. Join Ms. Simonton as she puts the cemetery in its historical context, as the birth of the Women's Movement in North Carolina, the place of Confederate Rest and the evolving trends in burial.

Ms. Simonton holds a BA in US History from the University of Hawaii and an MA in Historical Administration from Eastern Illinois University. Robin and her husband, Jeff, live in Raleigh with their four-year old son.

Carol Caldwell Scholarship Endowment and Club Fundraising

Thank you for your continued support of this endowment through your generous gifts. It's a great time to think about your 2014 year-end, tax-deductible contributions. Please send your checks payable to the North Carolina

State University Foundation, Inc. (noted: Carol Caldwell Scholarship Endowment) before December 31, 2014. And remember, anyone who gives a gift of $50 or more to the CCS Endowment during the 2014-15 season will be entered to win the "$$$ HAT" at our April 2015 meeting. Remember: One ticket for every $50 gift until April 1, 2015!

You may give your gifts to Sharda Sawhney or Anne Porter at our monthly meetings or mail to: Ms. Anne Porter, 3408 Caldwell Drive, Raleigh, NC 27607 -- Sharda Sawhney

Announcements

Reminder Meeting Time -- As always, our meeting begins at 12 noon sharp.

Newly Revised Constitution and Bylaws

Attention Club members! The vote on the proposed revised Constitution will take place at the November 20 meeting. – Mary Lou Eycke

Deadline -- Newsletter Articles

Newsletter articles for the next month are due to Helen Crane at each of our monthly meetings. This standard deadline should help all of us remember to have our articles ready for the following month. Your cooperation in meeting these deadlines is appreciated. -- Helen Crane Helen_crane@ncsu.edu

Hostesses for November

Our hostesses for November are Chris C-Wessel and Jackie Wynne, Co-Chairs, Sharon Ayers, Sally Linton and Linda Roberson. Thank you, ladies, for volunteering to serve as hostesses this month.

Condolence

We would like to offer our condolence to Mary Rollins at this time as her husband, Robert, recently passed. Mary, we're all thinking about you during this difficult time. If any of us can help you in any way, please give us a call.

Do you need a ride?

Please don't let lack of transportation be your excuse for missing out. We have members happy and are eager to help. Please call Grace Hodgson 919-781-2983 for assistance. Hope to see you in November.
