Message from our President:

Autumn: Halloween for the kids, football for the fans, the State Fair for everyone, and another fabulous topic at the NCSUWC! After perfecting our sleuthing techniques in September at a most intriguing lecture on forensics, this month we will have the opportunity to hear about Friends of the College.

Come on out, mingle with friends old and new, and settle in for a delightful October 17 luncheon and lecture.

- Please be aware that this is opening day at the fair. So you may want to allow a little more time to get to the club.

I can't wait! See you there!

Sharon Ayers, Club President

Our next meeting will be Thursday, October 17th at 1130 am. The meeting will convene promptly at 1130, lunch will be served at 1145, and our exciting program will begin at 1215.

Program Committee:

Our program this month is about the Friends of the College series.

Roy C. Dicks was a performing arts writer and critic with the Raleigh News and Observer for 21 years, and the weekly Raleigh Spector for 8 years.

He is a member of the Music Critics Association of North America, and has written for Opera Quarterly, Dance Magazine and American record guide.

We are all eager to hear his amazing story and learn more about the popular Friends of the College series!

Scholarship Fundraising:

Did you buy raffle tickets at the September meeting? Remember, every ticket you buy gives you another chance at a very special "Pig in a Poke" prize, guaranteed to be worth at least $100!

We are raising lots of money for scholarships thanks to the generosity of each and every one of you!!

Thank you, Ladies, and let's continue to help deserving students!

Communications Committee:

Do you know of a member who needs cheering up? Help us show them that we will support them and that we care! Please let Barbara Dickey, Chair of the Communications Committee, know as soon as you can. She can be reached at dadickey@bellsouth.net.

Hostess Committee:

Our hostesses for the month of October are:

Helen Crane
Carolyn Bunn
Ethel Boone
Ann Collins

We look forward to seeing what wonderful decorations you will do for this fall meeting!

Transportation Committee:

Don't sit home and miss a meeting because you don't have a ride!! Please contact Jane Mullahey and she will have one of our wonderful members pick you up!

Newsletter:

Newsletter articles are due at each of our monthly meetings. This standard deadline should help all of us to have our articles ready!

Thanks to all for your cooperation!

President Sharon Ayers called the meeting to order at 1139 am and welcomed everyone to our first meeting of the year. She thanked the hostesses for the beautiful centerpieces and decorated cupcakes. Our guests were Camille Cox with Jane Mullahey, Jim Pressley with Aileen Pressley, and Gary Knight.

President Ayers recognized the chairs and committee members by inviting them to stand.

She informed us that Alycia Thornton is preparing the yearbook for distribution at the October meeting.

We are still supporting Feed the Pack (student-faculty-staff food pantry) and if anyone can volunteer to help get items to the food pantry, let Grace Hodgson know.

Plan ahead for the State Fair at our next meeting in October. Several members recalled voting on moving the meeting, but we are not able to do so due to program and other conflicts.

Anne Porter reminded everyone of the 100th anniversary challenge she issued—if all members contribute $100 or more to the scholarship in this, our anniversary year, she will donate $1,000 personally. Lou Mitchell, scholarship chair, offered her own $1,000 challenge as well!

Linda Moore was invited to give our invocation.

Speaker Gary Knight gave a rather gory presentation on Crime Scene photography and how, often, photos have helped solve grisly crimes.

Next month's hostesses are Carolyn Burns, Helen Crane, and Ann Collins.

Respectfully submitted by,

Chris Cammarene-Wessel on behalf of Secretary Georgina Werner
