Hoppy April!!

“And Spring arose on the garden fair,
Like the Spirit of Love felt everywhere;
And each flower and herb on the Earth's dark breast
Rose from the dreams of its wintry rest.”

Message from our President:

Dear Club Members,

First and foremost, I hope that you and your loved ones are well. These are indeed strange times. Hopefully we will come out the other side in the foreseeable future.

Due to this pandemic, the North Carolina State University Woman's Club luncheon, meetings, votes on the budget, and elections are postponed until our September meeting.

We will not meet in April. The following actions have been taken:

- 1-The University Club has been informed of our decision.
- 2-All members checks for (last month's) March lunch orders will be destroyed.

It has been my pleasure to serve as President of the North Carolina State University Woman's Club over the last two years. What a joy it has been to get to know many of you better! You are extraordinary women, and I so appreciate your enthusiastic and willing service to the club.

Surely life will return to normal before too long. I hope and pray that you will remain safe and healthy into the coming summer and beyond.

With deep concern and my kindest regards,

Sharon Ayers,
President, NCSUWC
