Restful January

“January is the beginning of a new year for us in the Western world. Let us give to God what belongs to him: the first hours of our day, the first month of the year, the first of our increase, the first in every area of our life. It's devoted...The principle of the first fruits is that when you give God the first, he governs the rest and redeems in.”

Our January meeting will be on Thursday, January 18th. We will enjoy a delicious lunch of classic Caesar salad, chicken marsala, baked sweet potatoes, broccoli, rolls and butter, and coffee.

President's Message:

I hope everyone had a wonderful Christmas and a great New Year. We always make resolutions and set goals that we hope to achieve during the coming year. I would like everyone to think about resolutions for the NCSU Women's Club.

During the holidays, we all probably ate foods that are family traditions and from across various regions and/or countries. At our January meeting we will learn all about food traditions of the American South.

It's hard to believe there are only four more meetings before we have our summer break. Soon it will be time to think about nominees for executive positions and ideas for programs for next year. I encourage you to volunteer for a committee chair or voice your interest in being a nominee.

See you at the meeting!

Dean Simpson
President, NCSUWC
